TUESDAY, MARCH 24, 1903.

The bank act by the Irish Grand Master is computed to prevent a direct fit on the ex-mad hats from the city to Cleveland and fall to work, as before from San Francisco to Chicago. The effects of the celebration probably will be forwarding.

Bryan was met at Chicago leaving at night per train. Local committee were hastily formed, were pushed at 30 yards the square. Starting was shaky. Wild scout grew serious leading gallopin dozen a last evening up. The Chicago platform carefully were kept and reader partly to accompany with separate support evidence to Europe, but others was impressed by cases of explosive dust as the growing ones to new wonders, and also by the fact of large receipts. An assignment with Saturday park record of cards [illegible] and by cards [illegible], cuts 2 cards [illegible], cards by card [illegible], cuts by card [illegible], cuts and [illegible] cards, eye cards, and [illegible] cards [illegible].

The speaker of grace to Chicago [illegible] and other last National evening cards 2,701,407 [illegible] of wheat, 1,000,007 [illegible] of corn, 2,201,000 [illegible] of oats, 102,000 [illegible] of rye, and 200,000 [illegible] of barley. Total, 6,000,000 [illegible] of 27 [illegible] of grain, against 7,107,000 [illegible] a year ago. For the week ended the Secretary of the Chicago Board of Trade states the visible supply of grain is now 7 [illegible] more than [illegible] as 2,102,000 [illegible] of wheat, 10,007,000 [illegible] of corn, 7,000,000 [illegible] of oats, 1,000,000 [illegible] of rye, and 1,700,000 [illegible] of barley. These figures are smaller than the corresponding week a year ago by 007,000 in wheat and larger by 007,000 in corn. The visible supply of wheat for the corresponding week a year ago decreased 007,000 bushels.

The statement in the Chicago [illegible] that [illegible] Tribune's forecasters in not true and has never been made. It is [illegible] that [illegible] Tribune's work appears in any form in [illegible] publication. "Chicago" and "Tribune" are [illegible] by the Tribune, and [illegible] "Chicago" or "Tribune." The Tribune is not in favor of entering into [illegible] and is opposed to [illegible] on the matter as a condition for [illegible] of the "Chicago" and "Tribune" [illegible] has been of [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] and [illegible] of the [illegible] [illegible] and [illegible], it is true that some other [illegible] is opposed to [illegible].

AN EXPLOSION OF THE TYPEWRITER.

The Democratic City Committee, not content with [illegible] to its own business, adopted a resolution declaring that "in the opinion of the members of this committee [illegible] should forward the election of [illegible] to the Judge of the [illegible] Court."

It is to be regretted that the committee cannot be asked together again, so that it may have more clearly explain why Democrats in certain [illegible] [illegible] of a "non-partisan Judge." Whether it is for the good of that [illegible] organization that a "non-partisan" should be assisted for a particular office? Is the interest to which a non-partisan candidate [illegible] the interests of a particular party in that certain? Is no matter what the [illegible] be, a partisan organization.

It is proper even to state that it is not [illegible] of the Democratic party? Is there to the suggestions of the [illegible] Tribune of any candidate who binds the prospects of his success would be improved by giving the Democrats a say in the [illegible] of a Republican and the success of his partnership in the South Park Board. Such a [illegible] would be not only wrong but repellent. To adopt it would be to show the entire [illegible] and to express, unintelligibly, the only [illegible]. The duty of the party Committee is to [illegible] the [illegible] of the Democratic party. It is not [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

A $4.00 Specialty.

Clothing to Measure.

You'll pay five and six dollars for shoes not a bit better than ours at $3.50, and if you'll examine them closely you'll say the same. The uppers are of best domestic calf, the soles of good oak-tanned leather, and they're made with a hand-welt—which, as your cobbler will tell you, is an advantage. For style and finish they're faultless—at $3.50 decidedly a bargain.

We've made such a lasting impression on the men and young men with our $3.00, $3.50, and $5.00 Trousers that all we've got to do is to mention trousers to measure, and almost a regiment of dressy men marches in at the first count and—in fact the popularity of our tailoring department doesn't stop at Trousers. We make up the handsomest and best-fitting Suits and Overcoats you'll find in a day's travel.
